

Ronald T. D'Auria

The Intelligencer

Ronald T. D'Auria, a well-respected and loved chiropractor in Chalfont, passed away Friday evening, Nov. 21, 2008, in the emergency room at Doylestown Hospital. He was 61.

Ron's zany sense of humor spoke of his clever wit and was the heart of his charm. His enthusiasm for life and generosity of spirit were felt by all who knew him. "To love abundantly is to live abundantly and to love forever is to live forever" (Henry Drummond). He will be dearly missed.

He is survived by his loved family, including two children, Gia Barnett and Marc D'Auria; three grandchildren; his brother, Norman D'Auria and his loving fiancé, Roseanne Gaul and his cherished four legged companion, Angelique.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend his memorial service at 11 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 6, at Simcox-McIlvaine Funeral Home, 532 E. Main St., Lansdale, where the family will receive friends from 10 a.m. until time of service. Interment will follow in Whitemarsh Memorial Park, Prospectville.

For those desiring, in lieu of flowers, memorial contributions to the Ron D'Auria Memorial Fund for the Saint Katherine Drexel Shrine, would be preferred. Checks should be made payable to the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, 1663 Bristol Pike, Bensalem, PA 19020.

Simcox-McIlvaine Funeral Home,

Lansdale

November 26, 2008 12:00 AM