ANTHONY SALDUTTI Anthony Carl Saldutti, 69, a lifetime Lansdale resident, passed away March 16, 2011 in VNA Hospice of Philadelphia. He was the beloved husband of Elizabeth A. "Betty" (DiMauro) Saldutti and they had observed their 47th wedding anniversary last November. Born in Sellersville, he was the son of the late Angelo and Ida (Bocchino) Saldutti. He graduated from Little Flower High School in Lansdale in 1959 where he was honored to have been named class president by his fellow students and later graduated from LaSalle University in 1963. He started his career at Harleysville Insurance and later moved into the banking industry where he spent his years as a Systems Analyst for many prominent financial institutions in the Philadelphia area, including PNC Bank, First Pennsylvania Bank, Fidelity Bank and Atlantic Financial. He was an avid chess player, angler and gardener. Nothing gave him more pleasure than to share vegetables from his garden with friends and family. He was a member of the United Chess Federation and Trout Unlimited. Surviving, in addition to his wife, are three sons, Robert A. Saldutti of Bedminster, Richard Saldutti and his wife, Karen, of Lansdale and Michael J. Saldutti and his partner, Rodney Colson of West Chester; and five grandchildren, Robert, Elizabeth, Nicholas, Nathan and Skylar Saldutti. Also surviving are two sisters, Mary Johnson of North Wales and Lucy Fiorillo of Audubon; and a sister-in-law, Rosemarie Smith and her husband, Ralph, of Philadelphia. He was preceded in death by a sister, Ann Isabella. Relatives and friends may greet the family Monday, March. 21 from 9 to 9:45AM in St. Stanislaus Church, Lansdale, and are invited to attend his Funeral Mass at 10AM. In lieu of flowers, the family prefers Mass Cards. Arrangements are with Huff & Lakjer Funeral Home, Lansdale.
