

Richard J. Bertheaud

Rick was a graduate of Lansdale Catholic High School, PA, earned a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Pennsylvania, and a Master's Degree from the University of Virginia. Retirement could not slow him down, Rick filled his days playing with his grandchildren, snowmobiling in Vermont, building his dream home, and starting a new company, Timberstone Partners, though he talked more golf than business.

Anyone who knew Rick was touched by his kindness, humor, and fun-loving spirit. He poured his heart and soul into everything he did, whether it was participating in an animated discussion, golfing, hosting a family party, or cheering for the Eagles. Above all, Rick was an adoring husband and an amazing father, grandfather, uncle, and friend.

Rick is survived by his loving wife of 33 years, Andrea (Kennedy) Bertheaud; their five children: Edmond J. Bertheaud (Jamie) of East Longmeadow, Abigail A. Bertheaud of New York, Carene J. Bertheaud (Samuel), William M. Bertheaud and Richard P. Bertheaud, all of Hampden; three grandchildren: Alexis, Landon and Octavia. He is also survived by his mother-in-law, Mary-Lou Kennedy, sister-in-law: Charlene Bertheaud, brothers-in-law: Robert Summerhays (Chris) and Michael Kennedy (Kim); several nieces and nephews; and countless wonderful friends.
