

Joseph L. Fields

JOSEPH L. FIELDS, 71, of Quakertown, died Sat. Dec. 27th at his home. He was the husband of the late Sharon (Keller) Fields for 37 years. Born on Dec. 15th, 1943 in Lansdale, he was a son of the late Walter and Anna (Stockert) Fields. He graduated from Lansdale Catholic High School in 1962 and served six years in the Army National Guard. He was very handy and mechanically inclined. He could build or repair anything on a car or in a home. He was an avid car lover and was especially fond of his 1950 Ford Custom Deluxe.

He loved to travel with his wife and go camping with his family. In recent years, he enjoyed taking his boat out fishing on Lake Nockamixon, where he very often caught the biggest fish. He enjoyed going to casinos and was a very good and strategic poker player. He is at peace now and back with his beloved wife, pet dog, Oliver, pet cat, Pumpkin, and all those that passed before him. Surviving are his daughters, Lori Fields, husband Bill Dodd of Macungie and Melissa Wiggins, husband Tom of Quakertown; sisters Rosemary LeFever and Annie Chellew; many cousins, nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by a sister, Gerry Gimaro and a brother, Walt Fields. Services are private. Memorial contributions can be made to the Upper Bucks SPCA, 60 Reservoir Rd., Quakertown, PA 18951. Online condolences can be left at www.janauglefc.com.

Published in The Reporter on Dec. 30, 2014