

Mary "Missey" Thompson June 14, 1961 - Died: November 3, 2019

Location: Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania

Mary Rosarine "Missey" (nee Thompson) suddenly on Nov. 3, 2019 of Bryn Mawr and Sea Isle City. Long-time Medical Practice Administrator, with the last 13 yrs. at CHOP.

Survived by her beloved husband of 29 yrs. Michael J., her cherished daughters Cathrine M. and Meredith R. Thompson. Also, her brothers Robert J. Jr., Francis, James (Karen), Patrick (Alicia), her sisters Christine (David) Giacomini and Patricia "Tish" Thompson (John) and 5 loving nieces and nephews.

Missey grew-up in Philadelphia and Birmingham, Michigan and spent most summer weekends at her family's shore house in Sea Isle City, NJ. It was there where she met her husband Mike.

Missey attended Saint Joseph's University and earned a graduate degree in Health Administration. She went on to work at City Line Family Practice as the Practice Administrator for twenty years. In 2007 Missey moved to CHOP as Practice Manager at Kids First Haverford, then at West Chester. She then took on a greater challenge, moving to CHOP main campus as Senior Administrative Director of the Department of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry and Behavioral Services. There she moved the department forward in improving the patient experience and operating efficiency.

Beyond work Missey had numerous interests. She loved sewing, refinishing furniture, reading, biking, jogging and cooking. Jelly and Pasta-making weekends were an annual ritual with her sisters and friends. She also made blankets and her daughters, nieces and nephews were proud recipients of them. Missey participated in many charitable runs and walks and volunteered at many CHOP-sponsored events.

Missey was happiest when she was with her family and friends in Sea Isle. Whether it was reading on the beach, an evening run or enjoying a glass of wine on the porch of the little yellow house, she relished those moments. Her two daughters, Cat & Merry were her best friends and she valued the time spent with them most. She will be missed by all she touched.

Relatives & Friends are invited to her Visitation on Thursday from 6-9 PM at the D'Anjolell Memorial Home of Broomall 2811 West Chester Pike and on Friday Nov. 8th at St. Thomas of Villanova Church (on Campus) 800 Lancaster Ave. Villanova 19085 from 9 – 10:45 AM Funeral Mass 11 AM Int. Private Contributions may be made in Missey's memory to Bryn Mawr Hosp. 130 S. Bryn Mawr Ave. Bryn Mawr PA 19010.
