

Lawrence Allen Waldspurger Jr.

Lawrence Allen Waldspurger, Jr., age 76, of Middleburg, Florida passed away peacefully on Friday, June 20, 2014. He was the definition of Mr. Fix It; he loved wood working, repairing motorcycles and riding motorcycles. Mr. Waldspurger was actively involved at his Parish, St. Luke's Catholic Church in Middleburg, FL. and volunteered at the Annunciation Catholic School. He retired from Florida State College in Jacksonville where he worked for several years as the Facilities Manager. Mr. Waldspurger was married to his loving wife Jane for 30 wonderful years. Predeceased in death by his father, Lawrence Waldspurger, Sr.; his mother Emma Theresa Waldspurger; and his brother Dick Waldspurger. Survivors include his wife Jane Waldspurger; sons Larry (Amanda) Waldspurger, Doug (Patti) Coyle, Glenn (Kim) Coyle; daughters Terry (George) Waldspurger, Kathleen (Steve) Shutt, Karen (Dave) Smith; brother Walt (Nancy) Waldspurger; sister Pat (Ralph) Mahoney and 10 grandchildren. Relatives and friends are invited to attend a Memorial Mass at St. Maria Goretti Catholic Church, Cowpath and Derstine Rds., in Hatfield on Monday, July 7th at 10AM. Interment will be private immediately following Mass at St. John Neumann Cemetery in Chalfont. For those desiring, in lieu of flowers, the family request donations to be sent to a charity of the donor's choice.

Published in The Reporter, July 3, 2014