

William James White

William James White, of Sellersville, PA, passed away on Monday, February 13, 2017 in Doylestown Hospital, Doylestown, PA. He was 76.

He was the loving husband of Theresa M. (Kapuscinski) White. The couple would have celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary on May 19, 2017.

Born in Perkasie, PA, he was the son of the late James A. and Laura F. (Mich) White. He was a 1959 graduate of Little Flower Catholic High School, now known as Lansdale Catholic High School, Lansdale, PA. After high school, he served with the U.S. Navy.

Mr. White was a Tool & Die Maker for 42 years. He worked for AMETEK, Hunter Springs Division for over 20 years before transferring to the U.S. Gauge, Division of AMETEK, Sellersville, where he worked until his retirement in 2002.

Mr. White ("Whitey") had many hobbies including both fresh and salt water fishing, golfing and woodworking. He also enjoyed going to volleyball games to watch his two granddaughters play.

Surviving with his wife is a daughter, Christina Judkins and her husband Michael, of Hilltown, PA; two granddaughters, Stephanie of Hilltown, PA; and Jennifer Polichetti and her husband Anthony and their son, Isaac, of Hershey, PA; a sister, Rosemary Dorsi, of Sellersville, PA; a brother-in-law, Walter Kapuscinski, of Doylestown, PA; and a sister-in-law, Mary Lou Touhill and her husband, Edward Touhill, also of Doylestown.

A memorial service for friends and family will be held at 11:00 AM on Saturday, March 11, 2017, at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa, 654 Ferry Road, Doylestown, PA, in the original chapel located in the rear cemetery.

Arrangements are by the Bernard Suess Funeral Home, Inc., Perkasie, PA.
